FALL KICK-OFF RECEPTION

Join the CUC For A Special Evening As We Honor:

Senator Richard Roth
Danielle Hamilton
Dr. Lulamae Clemons

Monday, October 9, 2017
5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
UCR Alumni & Visitors Center
3701 Canyon Crest Drive
Riverside, CA 92521
ABOUT OUR HONOREES:

Dr. Lulamae Clemons: Led the PRIME program at UCR in the 1960s, which worked to integrate school districts. Since then, Dr. Clemons has been a tireless champion for education, civil rights, and social justice in the Riverside area.

Senator Richard Roth: Since taking office, Senator Roth has been a champion for UCR and this region, co-sponsoring legislation to launch the UCR medical school, and playing a crucial behind the scenes role in successfully bring CARB to Riverside.

Danielle Hamilton: is the 2017 Justice John G. Gabbert/CUC Scholar. Danielle chose UCR in hopes of pursuing a career in medicine and attending the UCR School of Medicine. A biochemistry major, she still hopes to become a doctor, but plans on entering the military first.

The Citizens University Committee Fall Kickoff is always one of the highlights of the year!

This year marks the 70th Anniversary of the CUC, which was founded by John Gabbert and other community leaders to bring a UC campus to Riverside.

Join us on October 9th for an evening of fun, food, friends, and a little fundraising as we get together to honor Senator Richard Roth, Lulamae Clemons, and UCR student and Gabbert Scholar Danielle Hamilton.

A portion of the event cost will help support the Justice John G. Gabbert/CUC endowed scholarship fund.
