"Achieving the Mission of the UCR School of Medicine"

Dr. Deborah Deas
Mark and Pam Rubin Dean, CEO for Clinical Affairs
UCR School of Medicine

The UCR School of Medicine enrolled its first medical students in 2013 and will graduate its first class next June. The school was designed to expand and diversify the physician workforce in Inland Southern California and to improve the health of the people living in the region. With more than 200 medical students enrolled and with cutting edge research underway, the school has grown at a rapid pace. UCR’s residency training programs are also expanding throughout the region in affiliation with area medical centers. Join the CUC on November 30th as Dean Deas discusses the recent achievements of the school and shares her vision for its future.

Deborah Deas, M.D., M.P.H. is the Mark and Pam Rubin Dean of the School of Medicine and Chief Executive Officer for Clinical Affairs. She joined UCR this past May. Previously, Deas was the interim dean of the College of Medicine and professor of psychiatry at the Medical University of South Carolina. Dean Deas earned her B.S. in biology from the College of Charleston and her M.P.H. from the University of South Carolina. She earned her M.D. from the Medical University of South Carolina. She is board certified in adult psychiatry, child/adolescent psychiatry and addiction psychiatry.
